

REDEEMING LOVE Synopsis

Synopsis

Based on the international bestseller by Francine Rivers, REDEEMING LOVE is a powerful and contemporary retelling of the biblical book of Hosea set against the romantic backdrop of the California Gold Rush of 1850.

Angel expects only pain from those around her. Sold into prostitution as a child, Angel survives with hatred towards herself and the men that use her. She meets Michael Hosea, a farmer who believes God wants Angel to be his wife. Dire circumstances force Angel to accept his proposal, but when Michael defies her bitter expectations, her frozen heart begins to thaw.

As Angel encounters a love unlike anything she ever experienced, feelings of unworthiness and shame cause her to run from a life she doesn't think she deserves. As Michael sets out to find her, Angel discovers there is no brokenness that love can't heal.

Coming to theaters January 21, 2022 and starring Abigail Cowen, Tom Lewis, Eric Dane and Famke Janssen, REDEEMING LOVE is a life-changing story of the power of unconditional and all-consuming love.
